

WARNING! ONLINE PURCHASES!

Please notice that LAUNCH cannot issue any guarantee for X-431 units, which are bought by internet-discounters. In case of after sales service or downloads of new software you have to contact your dealer.

LAUNCH X-431 Ltd. is an official distributor of LAUNCH Europe GmbH, which is the official branch of LAUNCH-Tech Shenzhen/China. X-431 units which are purchased by LAUNCH X-431 Ltd. are genuine units, delivered with 2 year warranty and active genuine software. These units also including individual access data for further downloads, including a username and password.

X-431 units which are sold on the internet by "None-LAUNCH-distributors" are from an unknown provenance. Mostly Chinese dealers offer these units by importers or directly on the European market, but in an illegal way.

Most units are counterfeited ones, in case you find a genuine LAUNCH unit. If you have concerns about Chinese units, which are equipped for the Chinese market with Chinese hard- and software. For identification, these units are delivered in blue boxes. Units in anthracite boxes, which are offered in the internet, are counterfeited or old units.

We also warn against cheap software which is often offered in the east European market. This software is hacked and faulty. LAUNCH and its distributors cannot take responsibility for consequential damage.
